Waddesdon Manor is a stunning French Renaissance-style country house. Built by Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild between 1874 and 1885 for weekend house parties and art displays. It is owned by the National Trust and managed by the Rothschild Foundation. The house is full of beautiful art work, fine porcelain, French furniture and numerous unusual clocks. Everything about Waddesdon is lavish, opulent or architectural including the wine cellar. Wander the grounds for Autumn colours, see the Rococo bird aviary or take time to reflect amongst the new Standing with Giants installation. Shop, Café, restaurant and wine sales.
